SITE MAP

Wire Frame

This is the splash page. It's the first page the user will see and provides links to all the other pages.

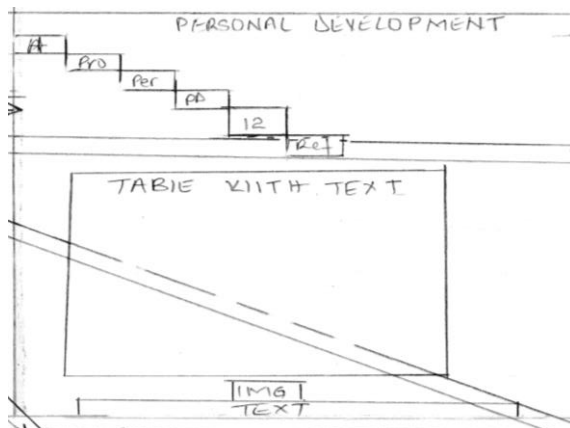

This is the professional page. It contains my vision and mission statements as well my resume and provides links to all the other pages.
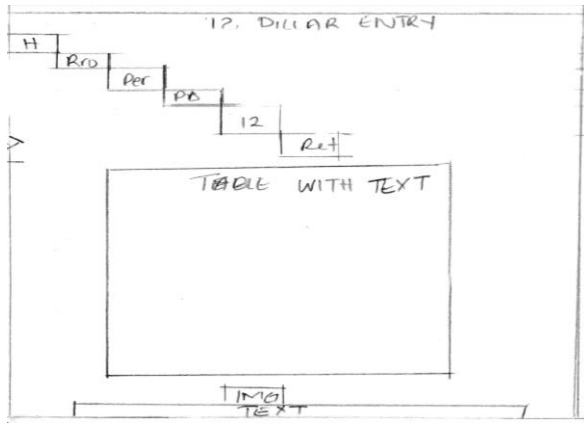

This is the personal page. contains information about my traits, emotions, likes, dislikes and hobbies and provides links to all the other pages.

This the personal development page. It contains what I consider my strengths.

This is Twelve Pillar Page. This can a summary.
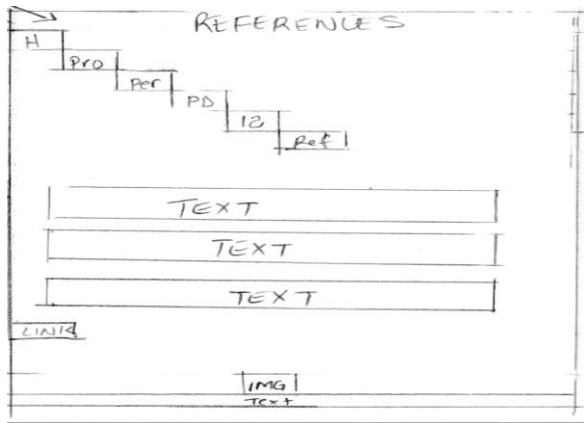

This is the reference page. It contains, in APA format, references of resources I used to help me with this assessment.

Pages and the intent

1. Splash Page (Index.html)

The users first exposure to the site. Provide them with the essence of the website.

2. Professional Page (Professional.html)

This page contains my vision and mission statements as well my resume.

3. Personal Page (Personal.html)

This page contains information about my traits, emotions, likes, dislikes and hobbies.

4. Personal Development Page (Personal Development Page.html) •

This page contains 3 of my strengths. I also explained why I consider them my strength.

5. Twelve Pillars Entry (Personal Development Page.html)

This page consists of a summary for the aforementioned book.

6. Reference Page (Reference.html)

This contains, in APA format, references of resources I used to aide me with this assessment.

Theme of the Site

The predominant colors used for the site were blue, grey, white and black. These formed my color scheme. The blue was use to convey professionalism. The grey was use to add neutrality. The white was used enhance the blue and grey. The black help with readability for the users .

The background is an abstract picture with set the basis for the theme. There is an email which is a link to contact the creator.

Target Audience

The target audience for this websute would be my teacher, friends, module cohort or anyone of the general population curious about me.

Features

For this website I incorporated the use of photos and hyperlinks